

YAK TALK BACK!

GETTING FAMILIES TALKING!

Parents,
do you struggle for more than one word answers when asking your children about their day? Do you need some help to kick start the conversation? Then welcome to the world of Yak Talk Back! the family friendly way to share your day that will help you get your kids talking!

Created in consultation with learning experts, Yak Talk Back! is a free, interactive smart speaker experience aimed at families with children aged 5-10. Led by the friendly and lovable character Yak, each session comprises a short story from Yak followed by three questions – purposefully selected to help kids talk about their day and express their feelings, all while developing their conversational skills and confidence.

Yak Talk Back! is free to play and with new content and questions added daily, families can always expect a unique and topical Yak experience.

Yak Talk Back! can be accessed and enabled from the Alexa Skills Store now. Or simply say “Alexa, open Yak Talk Back” to start the experience.

It's good to talk, but it's even better
